Compulsory Retirement of Government officers

2224. KUMARI SAYEEDA KHATUN : Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state :

(a) whether Government are considering a proposal to retire compulsorily some Central Government officers by ivoking section 56 J of Fundamental Rules; and

(b) if so, what are the charges against such officers and whether these have been investigated by any intelligence agency of CBI; if so, the details thereof ?

THE PRIME MINISTER AND THE MINISTER OF PERSONNEL, PUBLIC GRIEVANCES AND PENSIONS (SHRI VISHWANATH PRATAP SINGH): (a) and (b) Rule 56(j) of the Fundamental Rules confer on Government an absolute right to retire a Government Servant in public interest under stipulated conditions. Proposals under this provision are considered by the Competent Authority in the concerned Ministry/Department in accordance with the procedure prescribed under instruction issued from time to time. No specific case is under consideration of the Department of Personnel and Training to invoke section 56(j) of the Fundamental Rules. The power to invoke the provisions of FR 56(J), in accordance with the prescribed procedure and guidelines, issued by the Government of India from time to time lies with the competent authority, in the light of facts and circumstances of each case.
